If you are looking for a trusted home inspector to assist in a smooth transaction Jerry Jubert is for you. You can move through the negotiation process with confidence knowing Jerry is professional, thorough, and client education focused.

Jerry is perfect for the first time home buyer or buyer who appreciates a thorough explanation of the property's deficiencies and unique mechanical features. Your buyers are invited to attend the inspection for mechanical demonstrations, a walk-thru of repairs and safety issues revealed in the inspection, and for general question and answer dialogue.

Jerry is flexible and responsive. The detailed inspection report is emailed to you no later than 9:00 a.m. the day after inspection.
