Kara
Writer,
Stage Director & Performer

Kara brings the energy behind Sister music and performance. With a degree in theater arts and a talent for writing, Kara pours out that unique Sister language and flair and puts it in it's correct form. Whether that be music, poetry or characterization, she has a vision for how those Sister ideas can best be communicated. Mostly, Kara loves to perform after all that "work" is done and audiences love the energy she brings to the stage.

Alisa
Musical Director,
Arranger & Lead Singer

If its power you are looking for, look no further! Alisa is the lead singer in Sister's signature sound. Alisa brings to life the music not only through her vocals but also in the arranging of the Sister harmony stack and the layering of instrumentation. Alisa knows what she wants to hear and is equipped to get the sound she is looking for. With her music degree, Alisa has directed choirs, taught lessons, written and arranged music, but mostly just loves to sing. And audiences everywhere love it when she does.

Kjersten
Singer, Production Marketing

In addition to the great smile and warm eyes, Kjersten has a voice that can melt butter and often does. To balance all that classic beauty, Kjersten also rolls up her sleeves and gets the job done. Taking care of Sister business is just one of the things on her long list. Kjersten has directed choirs, taught lessons, been in and out of the corporate scene and has a degree in communications. Her natural abilities and talents along with all of that knowledge and experience make Kjersten an invaluable part of the Sister equation. But mostly, Kjersten likes to melt butter with her voice and audiences melt, too.

A Bit of “Sistory” (that’s history, sister style)

So, our story is this: We grew up in southern Minnesota on a small farm near a small town called Hanska. We grew up singing. We didn’t even know not singing was an option. As the story goes, Alisa was singing before she could talk.

Our mother Randvig (Run - vig) (it’s Icelandic) being of a musical persuasion herself, recognized our natural abilities and began to cultivate our talents by teaching us a large, albeit simple, repertoire which opened the door to performances not only for family members but also church and community events. With both our parents supporting us, we soon became musical mascots for our little community.

When we got older, we decided to take the ball and run with it. We sang as a trio all through those stormy high school and college years. We even sang through our weddings, various moves to different communities, and right on into those amazing having-children years. We never didn’t sing. We worked out lots of stuff along the way and amazingly, we kept singing. We’ve gotten a little more fancy because now we sing our own music, but sometimes for fun we break into the songs that take us back to the little farm just outside the little town in southern Minnesota. That’s our story, in a nutshell.

Sister Music

Child is the collection that launched our Sister ship! This CD of original music, released in 2004, speaks right to the heart, inspiring listeners to wake up to their own potential and lead a rich and original life. The lyrics and music of Child take you from “This Dream of Mine” into “Right Now.”

A sweet and inspired interpretation of a traditional holiday, Little Gems was released in 2006. This CD takes you off and running with “Sleigh Ride” and still preserves the true meaning of it all with “Let there Be Peace on Earth” and “Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas.” Featuring the Sister original Minnesota classic “Snow” and Alisa’s powerful “O Holy Night,” Little Gems twinkles like the stars in the winter sky.

Our latest CD, A Holiday Mixed Bag, released December, 2008. A Holiday Mixed Bag features Sister arranged favorites like “The Little Drummer Boy,” a rockin’ version of the English carol “I Wonder as I Wander,” and a brand new Sister original song “Christmas is Here.” The CD is mixed to capture our live sound and is a unique expression in the holiday music market.

Sister Live Performances

We continue to inspire organizations and companies, creating events that cater to their specific needs through the energy of Sister. We write original music and poetry to communicate key messages for our client's events. These creative performances take us in front of live audiences across the nation.

Our annual holiday live performances have become a tradition for many in the Twin Cities. These "live and in the moment performances" include musical favorites of a traditional holiday and original Sister music and characters. Performed in your "not so typical theatre locations," these amazing performances take you right back to the heart of Christmas.

Women's Events

Sister is refreshing entertainment for women's events. Women laugh, cry and truly feel a part of the universal experience while also being affirmed and being empowered to achieve their individual potential. Put a Sister spin on Mother's Day, build in a breakout session that breaks out of the mold, or create an event that appreciates, inspires, and entertains all in the same breath.

- "The Day I Was Born" (honoring parents and life stories)
- "Grandma's Song" (gratitude for those on whose shoulders we stand)
- "Gypsy" (being strong and independent)
- "Right Now" (bring your best self to the party!)
- "I'm a Poet" (a poem to help us remember our gifts and talents)

Community Concerts

No one brings people together like Sister! Repertoire, versatility and originality intersect to create a perfect solution to the universal problem of trying to appeal to everybody. Sister is fun to watch, fun to listen to, and has fun interacting with a crowd of strangers and creating a harmonious atmosphere. Transform your community event with Sister by providing them the common experience that becomes the launching pad for new and lasting friendships.

- Humor (jokes and characterizations)
- "Declaration" (building community)
- Familiar standards, "Sing, Sing a Song"
- Sister "originals" (universal message of friendship)

Faith Communities

Sister shares the love! Having grown up in the church Sister has the foundational Gospel music familiar to many faith communities. Combined with their Sister style in relating to an audience and a deep passion for encouraging others, Sister serves up a palate pleasing recipe that may even make the cookbook!

Sister Reviews

“When I first heard Sister perform, I knew immediately that I had to have them sing for the Women’s Leadership Workshop I was going to facilitate for our franchises. They did and they were fabulous! I have only heard them perform twice, but both times they received standing ovations, thunderous applause, and tears of overwhelming approval. They put our feelings to words and song & made us laugh and cry as well. If you haven’t heard them, you are missing a wonderful experience.”

—Pam Pech, Senior Director
Miracle-Ear
Franchise Operations

“Sister was the absolute highlight of our Annual Benefit we hold every year! Their ability to reach our audience was the key reason we exceeded our fundraising goal for this event. They are amazing!”

—Sara Messelt,
Executive Director
MN Organization on Fetal Alcohol Syndrome

“Sister rocks! Because of their incredible and inspirational performance, the Sales SheBang conference ended on an upbeat note. The standing ovation they received was proof positive that Sister was a smash hit.”

—Jill Konrath, CEO
Sales SheBang

“Having seen Sister a couple times over the past years, I really wanted the women in my community to experience this fabulous group. I was so excited when I was able to book Sister for our Mother-Daughter Tea. They really personalized their show for our event. Through their beautifully written and arranged songs and poetry, their charm and theatrical presentation, Sister brings out all emotions in their audiences- everything from laughter to tears. You can’t help but love them!”

—Carol Morgen
Congregational United Church of Christ

“Mom-Camp is an event that encourages and inspires women to rejuvenate, rediscover themselves, and reconnect with their passions. We’ve worked with Sister several times, and they deliver an amazing message about motherhood, womanhood, and childhood. They are inspirational and caring; they provoke thought and lots of emotion! They are a wonderful way to send the message that women are special and individual. No matter what stage of life an adult woman is in - when they hear Sister, they will identify with one of the messages woven throughout poetic song, beautiful music, and amazing voices. They are a gift to women.”

—Mary Kay
Mom Camp

“So many of the poems and songs from Sister’s performance touched my heart in a way that I never expected. It is wonderful that Sister’s gifts are being shared in a way that blesses all of us.”

—Pat Blaskowski
Presentation Catholic Church
